

The Geopolitics of Gentrification

Submitted by AA [1] on 10 July, 2014 - 16:45

A bunch of Russian oligarchs want to buy some hot New York City real estate. How can we cool their jets? Greater density! Deregulate zoning and let developers build as the market demands. With greater supply, the returns on foreign investment diminish. Right? Wrong. read more [2]
