

The Ugly Side of Reporting Abuja Demolitions

AA [1] | 8 May, 2013 - 13:01

[Daily Trust]The horse whip missed my face by a few inches. If it had landed, who knows how many stitches it would take to make the face presentable again? That is of course if there was no permanent damage. In anger, perhaps seeing that his aggression had made no debilitating mark, the civil defence official hurled himself at me in an attempt to seize the cause of his rage: my midget and camera. The fact that I quickly pulled out my press identity card appeared to enrage him the more. But a state official, who had com
