

15,000 Embobut Forest Squatters to Get New Homes

AA [1] | 21 September, 2011 - 07:46

More than 15,000 people evicted from the Embobut forest in Marakwet will now be resettled after the government sanctioned the purchase of land for the exercise. However, the government is yet to locate the land to be bought for the evictees who have been living in camps for three years now.
